A Special Energetic Report

This Energetic Report has been prepared by Deidre Lin & TransFormX to assist in the perception, utilization and integration of gateways in a general sense; and the  specifically.

To say that our experience on 9/9/09 is a Once-In-A-Lifetime event is more than an understatement. There can be no comparisons with events of this nature. The experience that occurred on what is perceived as that date and time has been termed 'The Crystalline Gateway' by some; the 'Triple 9' gateway by others and still many more that are unknown at this time.

Gateways: Can be thought of as a passage – between, through, into and onto – other dimensions via an opening of an Energetic Nature. Each one is different and diverse; just as we are. Can be 'seen' & 'felt' by focusing in on the energetic signature.

Energetic Gateways into other times, spaces, dimensions and realities often occur whether they are perceived or not. This has always been the case and shall remain so. What is different about the events surrounding the gateway openings in this era is that a great many can perceive, interact and utilize this gateway – and their corresponding energies - to a greater and greater extent. In times to come there will be much written about Gateways; including this one, the preceding ones, as well as the gateways that have yet to arrive.

The energy surrounding  is characteristic of not only endings but Divine Endings as it is triple in nature – meaning that the power and manifestation of this event is magnified to the 3rd degree. This magnification allows interaction between  and the individual's Divine Essence.

Numerology:

Is the science which attempts to explain the energy signature that corresponds with numbers 0 – 9. The methodology takes this a step further and corresponds all of the letters of the alphabet to the numbers as well, thus reducing all written forms into the most common energy signatures. The following is a brief overview of numerical meanings along with the corresponding Tree of Life representation.

0 – The Fool: Limitless, Unknowable, Purity, Love, All, Alpha and Omega, Possibility, Unified Field, Source, Space, Consciousness, Cosmic Egg, First Source, God.

9 – The Hermit: Ending, Spiritual healer, humanitarian, selfless, generous, philanthropic

My Experience with 9<sup>3</sup> started before the culmination of events on 9/9/09. I had been feeling the difference in energies on and off for about 2 years prior to this time. (Of course, at this point most of us know about the changes in energy the Ascension Age has brought and will not be discussed in this Special Energetic Report!) The changes in energies I'm referring to were directly related to 9<sup>3</sup>.

In the 2 years prior to the event I had made a re-emergence from an extended period of the 'Dark Night of the Soul'. Also during this time of re-emergence I had the opportunity to travel and while traveling I meditated in several geographic locations. My meditations were not only growing more and more intense; I was receiving a greater amount of information with each session.

I will not forget the 4 months leading up to the 9<sup>3</sup> event. I became increasingly calm and filled with peace as each month grew to a close. I was filled with a sense of knowing that this energy was to be very beneficial for me and I was more than ready! I had faith that I had everything I needed. I grew obsessed with cleaning out every storage bin, closet, boxes and shed. I made countless trips to the dumpster with items that were no longer serving a purpose for me. The items that were useable for someone else were donated to victims of natural disasters. I alternated between periods of frantic activity and absolute apathy and exhaustion. It was no wonder!! As each layer was being 'thrown off' I became more and more filled with peace, love and light. Not only was I having these experiences in my waking 'life' I had them in my dream state as well. I was having all types of dreams involving breaking away & throwing off energy. I awoke feeling more and more calm as the days went by. On 9/9/09 I had planned to drive up into the mountains, eat lunch and meditate. All went as planned and it was a beautiful serene day.

Although nothing spectacular happened on that day there was a sense that something was 'in the air'. Things just 'felt' different. Indeed they were! In the weeks following the 9<sup>3</sup> I remained calm, serene and at peace. Only a few bouts of anxiety have arisen and I reminded myself that 'all is well' ☺ and immediately began calming down.

It's all ok!

Ever since 9/9/09 I have been visited by this energy on a daily basis and want to share what I have experienced and learned. Yes! It was a wondrous event. The 9<sup>3</sup> will remain in place acting as a buffer between the worlds until no longer needed. There is no 'timeframe' set. Those who chose not to go through or participate in the 9<sup>3</sup> will always have a choice to do so. They need only to make that choice – it's never too late.

This is not to say that if they make the choice later it will be the same Journey as it would have been on 9/9/09. No the journey will be slightly different. It is important to realize that the choice is always there!

A New Energy Being!!

Out of the knowledge that was communicated to me; one of the main things that was made VERY clear - was that the 9<sup>3</sup> is not just a date & time! The 9<sup>3</sup> is a being in its own magnificent right – coming to assist us in a very unique and beautiful way; holding that particular energy border with joy, with no restriction or timeframes in place.

So then, where does this leave us? How do we integrate and work with this magnificent energy being? As everything else about the Ascension Age – it is a process.

How to integrate and work with 9<sup>3</sup>

Think of it in this way: As souls take in more and more light, dropping the denser energy, they are able to move closer to the energy border that is being held by the 9<sup>3</sup>. Once across this border there is an integration period as we move further into that space. The best way I have found to proceed with integration of these energies is to simply make the intention to do so! A wonderful affirmation or intention could sound like this: “I integrate this energy with grace and ease!” Your Divine Essence will do the bulk of the integration for you and at the pace that you require. Indeed, I have felt much love, support and welcoming energy since the 9<sup>3</sup> event. Amazingly I can see the souls arriving daily – wonder and joy emanating from them as they cross the dimensional border. It is truly a sight to behold. For the first month or so I was in a very vulnerable state and felt I needed cocooning, so to speak. As I meditate and draw in more of this wondrous energy I am prompted to share my new-found knowledge and experiences so that others can also be a part of the experience.

Nothing to Fear....

I also understand that others that chose not to participate on that particular day may – at some point – feel they ‘missed out’. No! Not So!! Please do not allow the ego to persuade you into this thinking pattern. All that is needed is the intention to continue Your Journey. Your Journey is not the same as My Journey or the Journey of the person sitting next to you on the bus. We are all individuals and this includes our Journeys as well. For those who have loved ones that chose to stay where they are – I say the same thing. Please do not feel sad or dismayed. There are ALWAYS chances and choices. There is ALWAYS free will! Buying into the thinking that ‘This is IT no more chances or choices – Decide now or be left behind forever...’ This thinking pattern is part and parcel of the ego stalling for more time. Release yourself from that Illusion! Do not feel guilty for moving onto a different energetic plane! Guilt is another ego defense meant to bind you to the energy you are leaving behind. Reassure the ego that all is well; all is as it should be and surrender to the moment.

A different Perspective...

A different perspective might be that you are in a different dimension than some of your friends and loved one's but this does not mean it is a 'negative' thing. Quite the opposite! It means that you will be there assisting when they choose to navigate the dimensions. You will be there when they request assistance just as you have been all along. This is a beautiful thing.

Numerical Resonance...

Further, I believe that we are meant to interact with certain energies. If you are in a '9' lifetime – meaning your birth date reduces down to a 9 – this is an important event for you. I would even venture to say that all 9's everywhere were involved to a large degree with 9<sup>3</sup>. If you are not a '9' you may not have even felt nor had an affinity for this event at all. I know several very spiritual people that did not even remember the day or the events of the day! I also know people who didn't even realize it was a gateway day at all!

Again, let's reiterate that all is well; all is as it should be and no one 'missed out' – do not fall into that quagmire!

When I look back to 5/5/05 and 6/6/06 I cannot even remember what I was doing on these specific days other than caring for a sick friend. I realize that timeframe was not about me or My Journey. Conversely I KNEW this year I was to be a part of something – I knew this year held great significance for me.

Expect More From...9<sup>3</sup>

As I started writing in my journal about my experiences through this uplifting experience, the energy that we became aware of on 9/9/09 revealed itself to me and rather than repeating the date over and over again I intuitively shortened it to 9<sup>3</sup>. Of course, when I began writing the Energetic Report I tuned into the energy being that is 9<sup>3</sup> and asked if this 'name' was ok. Immediately I received an affirmative answer that this abbreviation not only was an appropriate energetic resonance but it also would assist in explaining and thus integrating on a subconscious level - the power and magnificence of this energy!

As we move further into this energy field more and more information will be revealed. I am excited at the prospect for new and different changes I can feel coming on the horizon. There are changes in the air and I have faith that we are all in for a joyous time! In the coming weeks and months look for more Energetic
